Dear Cousins,

Happy 50th Anniversary Maloofs International! To celebrate, we are having a get-together in New Orleans in the suite of Lori Malouf Coronado on Friday, July 21 in the afternoon. Please check the schedule for location and exact time. You all are invited.

Our Annual Board meeting will be held just prior to the get-together. Board members please be on time and be prepared!

We had an amazing time at the Mid-Winter Conference in Oklahoma City (OKC). The hospitality was outstanding from the moment we got there until the moment we left.

As I was flying from San Antonio, Texas to Dallas, Texas (to catch my transfer to OKC) a conversation between me and a couple of other passengers began. By the time we were landing in Dallas, I discovered one of the passengers was a Maloof ... Small world.

Lori Malouf Coronado and I connected in Dallas and happened to be on the same flight to OKC ... A very quick flight.

That first night we were gathering with some of our hosts from OKC. We were talking about one of them having some Maloof sisters marrying some Malouff brothers many years ago. I called my father to ask him what he knew on the subject. He was able to give me detailed information about the sisters and brothers ... Come to find out our gracious hosts great-grandfather and my great-grandfather were brothers! Again, what a small world! This is what Maloofs International is all about, preserving and sharing our heritage with our cousins from around the world.

The next couple of days of the convention was filled with many meetings from the Board of the SFSLAC to the Young Professionals (with of course everything in between).

We enjoyed many activities over the weekend such as: Sitti's Kitchen, painting with a twist (most of us painted a cedar tree while others did the drums), bingo, belly dancing lessons, tour of the OKC National Bombing Memorial, bowling at the Biergarten, laser tag, child care, tons of food, and of course, sahras ...

My parents, Charles and Louise Malouff of San Antonio, just celebrated their 60th Anniversary. In attendance were five members of their wedding party: Maid of Honor Thelma Smith, bridesmaid Rosalie Starkey (who are the bride's sisters), Best Man and brother Jim Malouff, grooms man Jack Gress, usher Pete Boutross (brother of the bride). Other members of the wedding party could not attend due to health reasons.

Also in attendance were their children, 10 grandchildren, and 8 great-grandchildren as well as many neighbors, family, and friends.

Sincerely,

Julie

Maloofs International Celebrates 50 Years

Maloofs International, Inc. will celebrate its 50th anniversary this summer in New Orleans, Louisiana on Friday, July 21. Maloofs is very excited to reach this milestone and wants to share it with everyone in attendance at the SFSLAC Annual Summer Convention. To commemorate, Maloofs is hosting a get-together from 3-5 with a few munchies and a toast to fifty years. We hope to see you all there in New Orleans.

All of the information on the New Orleans Convention, including hotel information and the schedule, is available on the SFSLAC website, www.sfslac.org, under "events." We have included a registration form for the Convention in this issue as well.

We are expecting many Maloofs to gather in New Orleans and we look forward to seeing many of you there!
