Hello Cousins,

I hope that everyone is in good health and enjoying their summer. The Southern Federation's summer convention was held in Houston from July 10 to July 14. I was not able to attend, but several of our members were there including George Manning, Julie Malouff, Al Maloof, and Lori Malouf Coronado. I heard it was a blast!

On a sad note however, we learned of the passing of Rose Alice Campbell Zwan on Sunday, June 29, 2014. Rose was very active in the Federation and served as Past President and Past Secretary, as well as being involved in several other organizations including St. Jude. She will be missed.

Our annual meeting was held in Houston as well. Items on the previously distributed agenda were discussed and agreed to. Julie Malouff of San Antonio, Texas has accepted the position of President-Elect. Congratulations, Julie! In addition, a discussion about a Maloofs International family reunion via a cruise was suggested in order to promote a Maloofs specific activity and membership engagement. More on that will come via e-mail.

In the meantime, I wish everyone the best.

Maloofs Receives Thanks

To Maloofs International, Inc.

Thank you for your generous contribution of $750 to the Southern Federation Foundation, Inc.'s Scholarship Program of 2014 for the Maloofs International Club Scholarship. Your continued support has helped our program grow which enables us to recognize our outstanding youth.

Again the Scholarship Committee thanks you for your wonderful contribution. Your support is not only greatly appreciated but is vital to our mission and our ability to carry out our goals and purposes.

Sincerely,

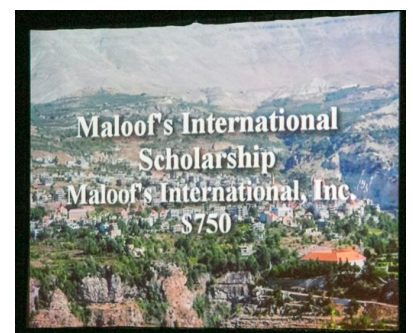

Miriam B. Koury
Scholarship Director

To: Maloofs International, Inc.

In grateful appreciation, we acknowledge your donation to the Dr. George B. Mowad Guardian Angel Program by your contribution of $100.00. Your endorsement of our program and your support of our heritage is evidenced by your generosity.

With sincere thanks,
Mary Mowad Guiteau
Chairman
Dr. George B. Mowad Guardian Angel Program

Maloofs in Houston!

Houston Lived Up to Its Promise ...

By Lori Malouf Coronado

Wednesday, July 9, 2014, I arrived in Houston for the first time. My flight was on time, Houston Hobby Airport was clean, my shuttle was ready, and the hotel staff hospitable. I didn't quite realize it yet, but I had arrived at a weekend-long Hafli! Registration and Hospitality both opened first thing in the morning on Thursday and I was ready! Thursday was loaded with activities for all ages and special groups, from the ice cream social for tweens and the mother/daughter tea for the debutantes to the Young Professionals Happy Hour and the Singles Wine Tasting.

After a full day, the first night of the Convention opened with a big bang....a Casino Night and Mediterranean buffet! The food was delicious, and the dealers patient and professional! The tables were packed all night long. We were all given 2,000 chips to gamble with. With my chips, I played at a Black Jack table for the first time and had lots of fun watching poker and craps as well. Then we all cashed in our remaining chips for raffle tickets; there were about 10 prize packages, everything from free nights at a Las Vegas Hotel to spa packages to Omaha Steaks to gasoline cards and more. The evening was capped off with a Hafli featuring Jabour and the Band and lots of dabke-ing until 2:00 a.m. There was also the choice of a late night Hospitality Room for those who wished to socialize in a quieter environment.

For those who didn't get enough exercise dabke-ing into the night, Friday morning offered an early morning Zumba class or a Bayou run. The Hospitality Room was crowded, just as you'd expect. There were the usual meetings that morning, but more fun was the Arabic pastry making demonstration. The Southern Federation Luncheon followed where Charity Director Rae Hamauei gave a charitable donation to Camp for All, a camp for kids and adults with special needs.

Then over $85,000.00 in Foundation scholarships were awarded. We were treated to a PowerPoint presentation of the scholarship winners and donors, followed by short videos submitted by some of the students sharing their interests and goals and thanking the Foundation. The crowd was attentive as the videos were lots of fun and it was great to see each of the students "up close and personal." As an added treat, the Foundation Cultural Committee presented a video on the life of St. Jude Hospital founder, Danny Thomas. It was received with great enthusiasm by the audience!

Friday afternoon there were Scavenger Hunts for the younger crowd, a Karaoke Sing Along, a Young Professionals gathering, and the Guardian Angel Reception before we all explored Houston for dinner. The highlight of the night was the Debutante Ball, featuring 25 of our smartest, liveliest, and loveliest young ladies beautifully dressed in white formal gowns with their escorts in black tie attire. There were fathers, mothers, brothers, uncles, cousins and friends proudly escorting and dancing with these young women. We were then treated to a "Debutante Dabke" which was a surprise to all, even the debutantes, who happily complied and danced for us all. Friday night's entertainment featured DJ Maroun and followed by the hafli with Jabour and the Band followed by a late night DJ as well as the Hospitality Room. The party continued until 4:00 a.m.!

Saturday's main feature was the General Assembly. The State Vice-Presidents proudly carried in their flags, and the meeting was off to a great start. The gavel was handed off from Past President Carlos Johary to President Sharon Abercia. The meeting was smooth and efficient and ended right on time for everyone to get ready for the Grand Banquet, always my favorite. This year's Banquet did not disappoint. It was emceed by Nancy and Raymond Risk, and we were treated to a Southwest Caesar salad followed by sliced tenderloin with risotto and vegetables, topped off with chocolate cake or a fruit tart. The hotel did an excellent job with both the food and the service. There were the usual speeches and awards and lots of applause. Again, as you would expect, the night was capped off with Dabke, lots of Dabke, and Jabour and the Band.

A Maronite Mass was held on Sunday in memory of Past President Harris Nader and Past President Rose Zwan. Afterwards, the convention festivities were capped off with a Farewell Breakfast that was crowded and boisterous with everyone lingering over their goodbyes before traveling home. All in all a wonderful time, I had so much fun I never left the hotel from Wednesday night to Sunday afternoon!

Maloofs Cruise

At our recent meeting in Houston we discussed holding a separate Maloofs International Convention again. We are interested in going on a short cruise out of Los Angeles. We are looking at October/November 2015 and prices start at $250 pp plus transportation to and from Los Angeles. This is on Princess Cruise Lines. Of course, children are welcome.

We need a guesstimate of how many people would be interested to let us know if we should research this further. Please email or call if you are interested. Email is LMCoronado@stanfordalumni.org or phone 626 862 2607 to discuss.

Maloofs on TV

Lebanese TV recently aired a documentary on member Charles Malouf Samaha's great-uncle, Archbishop Joseph Malouf. It was called The Departed Who is Present in Spirit and ran for an hour and both Charles and his mother, Adelia Malouf Samaha, appeared in the film. Malouf was Archbishop of Baalbek from 1937-1968 and founded the congregation of Our Lady of the Good Service.
